

SOUTHWEST SUFI COMMUNITY

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Help us prepare for and host our own Sufi Camp with Pir Shabda Kahn and Bryn Morgan
as our Teachers and Guides

AUGUST 16TH - 21ST, 2022
NORTH OF SILVER CITY, NM

Come, be a part of the renaissance;
the manifestation of Pir Moineddin's vision
at SSC's Voice of the Turtle Retreat Center.

3 POSITIONS OFFERED

ARRIVE IN JULY AND STAY THROUGH AUGUST

Live in community within the vast beauty of New Mexico's Gila Wilderness, in the company of fellow mystics and seekers.

Help us prepare the Land and make ready the Dance Temple for our 2022 Summer Camp, in service Toward the One.

Live in your own bell tent while sharing kitchen and shower facilities with others in the community.

Experience life in this sanctuary of Nature along the year-round Bear Creek, allowing the mystic within to blossom and grow, healing and nurturing the Land and self, while attuning to the service of our lineage.

An extended stay may be possible upon request with approval from the community.

THE DETAILS

THIS IS A VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

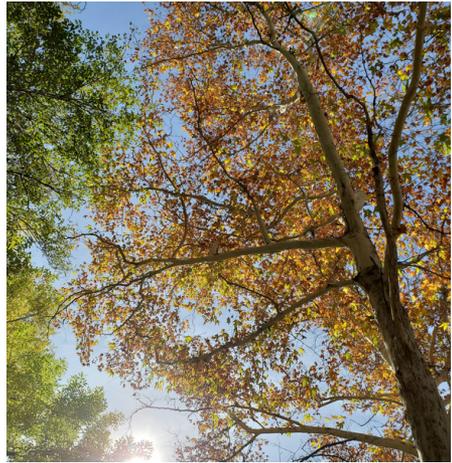

You will provide your own food and clothing, bedding, and personal effects, except during Camp when we provide 3 meals for all attending. You will not need to pay for Camp, nor pay the community participation fee to live here during your volunteer session.

REQUIRED:

- A sturdy and able 4X4 or high clearance vehicle;
- The ability to live in the wilderness;
- A strong body able to withstand hot weather;
- Ability to take direction and work independently;
- A desire to serve The Message.

Southwest Sufi Community is located 15 miles north, on a variable width dirt road, from the town of Silver City. The town is an eclectic mix of old and new times. Hispanic roots and ranching families have blossomed into a college town filled with art, culture, coffee shops, services, and a great little food cooperative.

To inquire and/or express interest in applying,
email Bahaar at saba@mind.net.